

Alejandra Zermeño

Mexiko/Mexico

Geboren 1978 in Mexico City, studierte visuelle Kunst. 2008 MA mit Auszeichnung an der San Carlos Akademie. Verschiedene Preise, Mitgliedschaften und Stipendien in Mexiko. Bisher zehn Einzelausstellungen, seit 1996 Teilnahme an Gruppenausstellungen und Biennalen in Mexiko und im Ausland: 2011 Tokyo International Award, Diffusione Arts Centre, Edizioni e Promozioni Artiche, Italien und Tokyo; X. Internationales Treffen Lateinamerikanischer Frauen in der Kunst, Mexiko Stadt; "Beschreibungen einer Reise", Konsulat Calgary, Alberta, Kanada; "Cercle De La Garnison", Quebec, Kanada; 2010 "Frauen in der Kunst", Kulturinstitut Mexiko in Spanien, Madrid; "Latin Views", Biennale, Connecticut, USA; II. Zeitgenössische religiöse Kunst Biennale, Monterrey, Mexiko; "Beschreibungen einer Reise", ESECA Galerie, Ottawa, Kanada; Lutherische Universität, Kalifornien, USA; Gorman Museum, Sacramento Kalifornien, USA. www.alejandrazermeno.com

Born 1978 in Mexico City, conducts studies in Visual Arts Degree. 2008, MA with honours in the San Carlos Academy. Received several awards, fellowships and honours in Mexico. She had ten solo exhibitions. Since 1996 Zermeño has participated in several group exhibitions and art biennials in Mexico and abroad: 2011, Tokyo International Award, Diffusione Arts Centre, Edizioni e Promozioni Artiche, Italy and Tokyo; X. International Meeting of Latin American Women in the Arts, Mexico City; "Description of a journey", Consulate Calgary, Alberta, Canada; "Cercle De La Garnison", Quebec, Canada; 2010, "Women in the Arts", Cultural Institute of Mexico in Spain, Madrid; "Latin Views", Biennial, Connecticut, USA; II Contemporary Religious Art Biennial, Monterrey, Mexico; "Description of a journey", ESECA Gallery, Ottawa, Canada; Lutheran University, California, USA; Gorman Museum, Sacramento California, USA.

www.alejandrazermeno.com

The therapeutic power and its dual (diptych), 2010, Installation: Edelstahl, 168x60x40 cm / 170x50x35 cm
 The therapeutic power and its dual (diptych), 2010, cast resin, nylon thread, 168x60x40 cm / 170x50x35 cm